The Govt while fixing a scale of expenditure in the institution requested the Deputy Commissioner in Pro no 1205-6, dated 29th August 1907 (marked as para 1) para 5, to report whether the land on which the shops and cattle fair are held belonged to the temple and whether the fees proposed to be levied by him on cattle would be paid without demur and whether any cattle fairs in the vicinity would not be prejudically affected by sanctioning a cattle fair at Yedruru.

In reply, the Deputy Commissioner states that certain 4 Sur. nos of Yedruru are used for holding cattle fair, that 3 of them belong to the temple and that though the remaining Sur. no has been set apart for Hulbanni no grass grows thereon, and that therefore the villagers have no objection to this number also being used for the cattle fair He further states that the holding of a cattle fair at Yedruru will not prejudically affect any other fairs, as no cattle fairs are held within a radius of 25 miles of Yedruru

The shops are stated to be held on Sur no 88 of the village, having an extent of 9. 4 Gs No this the Deputy Commissioner reports is a Govt land which had been formerly assessed, but that since 29th September 1883, the land has been, under orders of his office converted into Kharab and is hence set apart for the sole use of the temple.

As regards the levying of rent on these shops, the Deputy Commr says that the villagers, the temple Dharmadarsis and the leading residents of the surrounding villagers welcome the new imposition. He has also subd a list of rates of the rent proposed to be levied on the different kind of shops.

In conclusion, the Deputy Commissioner requests that the proposal of levying rents on shops and cattle during the Jatra may receive favorable consideration. He has however in para 5 of his report, ~~stated~~ Noted that the cattle fair is altogether a novel institution in this Jatra and it would therefore be necessary to give it wide publicity in the surrounding villages before it can attract cattle in large numbers, and expresses the opinion that the levying of toll on cattle may therefore be deferred for one or two years.

The Deputy Commissioner's report explains the case in detail.

(Mysore)

Sir, In inviting your kind attention to para 5 of the Government notification No 1205-06, dated the 29th August 1907, calling for further information regarding the levy of rents on shops during the time of the Jatra at Yediyur, Kunigal Taluk, I have the honour to report as follows:—

2. The lands on which the cattle fair is now held are Survey nos 68, 73, 74 and 71 of Yediyur village. These numbers are by the road side and are very near the Shimsha river — They are therefore very advantageously situated both for water and for shelter. They are close to the village being about two furlongs from it. Of these, the three Survey numbers 68, 73 and 74 are Inam lands belonging to the temple and survey no 71 is Kharab and is set apart for kulkarni But the amildar reports (Paper 83 of this file) that this last number is not even useful for kulkarni purposes as the soil is limy and not adapted for the growth of grass. The people of the village are willing to give this up for the use of the Jatra and they have submitted a Nahaz to the same effect (Paper 161 of this file)

3. The shops are being opened on survey no 88 having an extent of 9 acres 16 gunthas; this is a government land but is set apart for the car procession. This was assessed formerly but being used by the temple during the Jatra or carfestival; it was later on converted into Kharab and since 29th September 1883, the date of this office order, this land has been set apart for the sole use of the temple.

4 As regards the levying of rent on shops, the villagers, Dharmadarsis and other leading men of the surrounding villages welcome this new imposition (Paper 162). A list showing the rates on different kinds of shops is herewith submitted (paper 163). His drawn up in accordance with the existing rates in some important Jatras held in this District (paper 153–158). His interesting and at the same time important to note in the Amildar's report (paper 83) that during the last Jatra as many as 1211 shops of all descriptions were opened, and at the rate now proposed as much as Rs 617 could be collected annually (p. 159).

5. With regard to the levying of toll on cattle during the Jatra, the Amildar supports the view of the villagers that it may be deferred for one or two years as the cattle fair is altogether a novel institution in this Jatra and as it would therefore be necessary to give it wide publicity in the surrounding villages before it can attract cattle in large numbers. This seems to be desirable and I therefore concur with the Amildar's opinion –

6. The Amildar further reports that by holding the cattle fair at Yedi-yur, there is no likelihood of its affecting prejudicially any of the cattle fairs in the vicinity as no such fair is held within a radius of 25 miles from Yediyur. The fairs at Sivaganga and Suggambelli in the Nagadi Taluk are beyond this distance.

7 I therefore request that the proposal glerying rents on shops and cattle during the Jatra at Tyediyur may now receive favorable consideration at an early date as the Jatra is fast approaching

I have the honour to be,
Sir
your most obedient servant

N. Venkatachalam
